

Dr. Luis Antonio Velasco Sosa

Anesthesiologist

Graduated from Universidad Autonoma Baja California school of medicine in the year 2002, campus Mexicali Baja California

Graduated from the Universidad Autonoma de Nuevo Leon, University hospital in the specialty of anesthesia in the year 2007, in Monterrey Nuevo Leon, Mexico.

Is trained as anesthesiologist for high risk pregnancy in the Centro Medico de Occidente IMSS in Guadalajara Jalisco

License to practice medicine since 2003 by the secretary of public education #3945061

License to practice anesthesiology since 2008 by the secretary of public education #5524869

Board certified anesthesiologist

Active member of the Mexican Federation of Anesthesiology #02A 6464

COURSE:

Course of neonatal reanimation 2001

Course of ATLS 2001

Course of difficult airway management 2006

Course of local anesthesia 2006

Course of Pain management in the cancer patient 2006

Course of intravenous anesthesia 2008

Course of ACLS 2009

10 Things

As an avid learner have attended multiple congresses of general anesthesia as well as obstetric and bariatric anesthesia, as well as courses in difficult airway management, intravenous anesthesia, regional anesthesia, neonatal resuscitation.

Certified in Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support

Have participated in more than 2, 600 cases of bariatric anesthesia

Have participated in more than 3,500 caesarean deliveries

Have participated in more than 500 highly risk cesarean deliveries

Have participated in more than 3,000 laparoscopic surgeries.

Highly trained in the use of laryngeal mask devices

Highly trained in the management of pain in all types of surgery

Has published articles on the safety of laryngeal mask in obesity patients, one featured in Ifso 2009

Excellent team member along Dr Leopoldo Sanmiguel.

Is in charge of answering all the questions regarding the anesthesia procedure via e mail.